Would you like to leave on a camping trip poor and come back rich? What if that meant encountering a vicious, huge, blue bunny, a big, black bear, man-eating trees or a two-headed dragon guarded by giant spiders?

That's what happened to Billy Bedivere on a weekend camping trip with his dad and friends. Warned by his dad not to cross the creek, Billy does just that when he hears the call for help coming from inside a large cave. Billy, the good scout, goes in the cave alone and is swept into another world: the Kingdom of Legends. It appears to be a one-way trip until he acquires some very strange and even famous characters as friends along the way. Billy must grow up fast if he is to survive and conquer the biggest challenge of his life and return home. He's just a normal suburban kid, but he'll need to be a man, a hero, for he must defeat the Dragon Queen! Does he have what it takes? In his fight to return home, his life will change forever and reveal something even more shocking... which will change everything again!

A tween underachiever finds himself an unwitting player in an intergalactic game to save the planet. Last night, Brady found a train, tunnel and a mountain in his backyard that wasn't there the day before. Then the tiny alien appeared.

Now, he finds himself caught in a war between a little alien who doesn't want to answer any questions, and a terrifying monster who pursues it. Before he can figure out what to do, one of the intruders alters Earth's place in the universe and Brady is forced to seek help of a conspiracy nut Sheriff and the science teacher who's dating Brady's mother. Now Brady, best friend Frankie, and the tiny alien race through space, battling monsters and searching for a way to reverse Earth's fatal trajectory. But just as they find the answer, Brady discovers he is only a pawn in a much larger game. Now it's up to him and his friends to figure out how to save the world before the game is over....forever!
